STINGERS LOOK TO REBOUND AGAINST RAVENS - CHAPADOS SETS NEW RECORD FOR LEAGUE INTERCEPTIONS

The Concordia Stingers hope to rebound from last week's 10-8 loss at the hands of their crosstown rival the McGill Redmen. The Stingers entered the game ranked fifth in the country after an impressive 20-11 win over the Queen's Golden Gaels the week before. However, the unranked Redmen brought the Stingers down to earth Saturday, a fact that is not lost on head coach Pat Sheahan's squad.

"This could be the best thing to happen to this team," Sheahan responded in his post game analysis. "We lost our bearings for a week. You're not a great team because of one game. In this league, if you're not ready to play every Saturday you pay the price."

Concordia hopes to get back on the winning track against the much-improved Carleton Ravens. Although Carleton is 0-2 in league play, they possess a potent passing attack and have demonstrated they can play against anyone in the league.

The Stingers return to the friendly confines of the Loyola campus on October 6 when they host the Bishop's Gaiters. There will be a celebrity Kick for Diabetes at halftime of that game featuring Rob Faulds of CFCF, Randy Phillips of the Gazette and Mitch Melnick of CJAD, among others.

Stéphane Chapados of Dollard des Ormeaux, provided the Stingers with one bright moment. The fifth-year defensive back recorded his second interception of the year in the first half to thwart a McGill drive. In doing so he established a new O-QIFC career record with 17 interceptions.
